TRANSMITTAL LETTER

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

In the Notice of Allowance mailed July 15, 2005, the Examiner crossed through reference AJ submitted in an IDS on April 27, 2005 stating he had not received it. This is thought incorrect.

Counsel submits a copy of the postcard receipt showing that on April 27, 2005 inter alia, an IDS along with copies of the references was submitted and acknowledged. Counsel has gone through his copy of the references and can verify that publication AJ was contained in counsel's copy of references submitted and counsel again submits it. It may be that since this reference is solely in Japanese the Examiner did not recognize it for what it was, however, it clearly is identified by page numbers 79-83. The relevancy of this Japanese language reference is contained in the Official Letter from the Japanese equivalent application which was also submitted to the Office, and a copy of which again is enclosed.

It is requested the Examiner again review the references he has in his possession and indicate that to the extent he understands reference AJ, he has considered it.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
